Staggering List of Killed and Wounded, He Says, is Being Perused by People in Berlin Daily—Daily Toll of War is on an Average 1000 Among Teutons—Feeding and Looking After Prisoners a Serious Problem—All Vaccinated Against Smallpox—Men Put to Work Mending Roads.

(By A. P. Correspondent)
Berlin, Aug. 27.—Nearly four weeks of the European war have passed and this is written. A series of gigantic battles have been fought along the western front from Brussels to the Swiss frontier.
On the east the Russians have poured into East Prussia, and as yet the only regular, detailed features of the war news for the German public are the daily casualty lists. War bulletins furnish scant reading for anxious German eyes. The army leaders can announce the rout of eight French army corps in 30 words but day after day the Official Gazette rolls out its staggering list of killed, wounded and missing at the rate now of nearly a thousand a day. These cover only the preliminary fighting of the great struggle on the French frontier; the reports from the great battles near Metz, Longwy and Neuchâteau, with their thousands of casualties are yet to come.

The names march by in long columns of the Official Gazette arrayed with military precision by regiments and companies, battalions or squadrons. The complete lists are headed usually by the names of the officers killed or wounded then come the casualty lists of the enlisted strength, first the dead, then the wounded and the missing.

Few Cause Wounds
An attempt is made with the wounded to give the nature and location of the wound. These are yet are principally from rifle or shrapnel fire. A pretty few in the cavalry are labelled "lance thrusts," indicating that as yet the favorite weapon of the European cavalry has not done the damage expected of it, although the latest reports of the war correspondent in the east indicate that the lance is now coming more into play in the engagement between the Russian and German cavalry. Only one death from sickness has been reported.

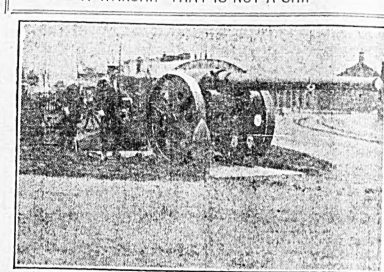

"War has brought in its train widespread involuntary idleness in spite of the millions of men withdrawn from productive employment. Factories are closing down or running short handed, the ranks of non-employment are felt everywhere among the working classes. Symptoms of it are seen in the hundreds of idlers appearing on the streets as newsboys or seeking other unusual employment and in the heavy calls for assistance from the municipalities labor union funds."
The largest labor union in the Berlin district, that of the metal workers, 85,000 members, reports 11,000 unemployed although some 16,000 members are with the troops in the field. Of London, Sept. 8.—(3:35 p.m.)—The African World, a weekly publication, has received information that the emperor of Austria, Francis Joseph, died 12 days ago. The news of the emperor's death was suppressed in Austria Hungary, the paper says, on account of the dangerous internal situation.

A WARSHIP THAT IS NOT A SHIP

The picture shows the "Lady Smith Gun" a 47 quick-firer which was mounted on wheels by the crew of H.M.S. Powerful and taken to Ladysmith where it did good service during the Boer war. It is now on H. M. S. Excellent, as the Admiralty calls the training depot at Whale Island, Portsmouth, although it is not a ship but a land station.

From a North Battleford
Reader of the Capital—
One of Many Coming in North Battleford, September 4, 1914.

To the Editor of the Capital:—

"I cannot refrain longer from an expression of appreciation and admiration of the splendid editorials which are appearing from time to time in your paper.

"In the issue of today your articles 'Ridiculous Hypocrisy of Monarchs' and 'The Rapid Descent to Barbarism' are articles which should occupy the front page, under heavy headlines.

"It is certainly refreshing at this time, when the very air is saturated with cant and hypocrisy, to have such clear-cut, fearless conceptions expounded.

"I am a British subject, and as such am just as anxious that the British forces should overcome the enemy as any British subject. I think Britain's action in the present conflict was forced upon her, and anything less than the empire is doing would be dishonourable.

"But let us face the facts as they are, not in any spirit of disloyalty, but as men who are supposedly civilized and Christian.

"The war is a disgrace to vaunted culture and refinement; it is absolutely opposed to any known ethics of righteousness, Christian or otherwise. It is cruel, unjust, barbarous and disastrous.

"This war is the supreme sin of the world, born of pride and avarice on the part of its promoters, and blind ignorance on the part of its victims.

"I urge to your readers the iniquity and horror of war, turn back the crimson mantle, of so-called glory, let them see the gazing wounds of countless miseries.

"Enlighten and enthrone the people who come within your sphere that in this great conflict war should exterminate itself, from the groans of the dying, the greatest curse the world has ever known, which shall be for the cessation of armaments.

"I would to God all editors had as clear a conception of true conditions as you have."

Enemy Retreating in Galicia
Leaving Guns and Wounded on Field.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The Russian embassy here today issued the following statement in regard to the movement of the Russian army:
"On Sept. 5, our troops took the strong fortifications of Mikolae, on the Dniester river. The mounts of these works were covered by flanking fire, the artillery placed in steel cupolas and the whole of the works surrounded by a triple line of wire, entanglements. We took 40 guns and large stores of supplies and ammunition. In northern Galicia serious fighting is going on at Husa Huska. The first Austrian army which had been advancing toward Lublin and Kholm, is retreating before the onslaught of our troops. We are taking prisoners, guns and ammunition.

"In one of the field hospitals that fell into our hands, we found that 50 Austrian soldiers were suffering from dysentery. This illness is sweeping the ranks of the enemy.

"In East Prussia only skirmishing is taking place."

STATES WESTERN CROP
WILL BRING FARMERS
MUCH AS LAST YEARS'

Winnipeg, Sept. 8.—According to A. Bedford, deputy minister of agriculture, the farmers of the west will get quite as much for their wheat crop this year as they got last, notwithstanding the much smaller yield. High prices and relatively low expenses for harvesting and threshing will do the trick. In preparation for the biggest crop the province has ever harvested, the farmers are now straining every nerve at fall plowing. Threshing in the Red River valley is nearly completed, says the deputy minister, and harvest hands, instead of being turned off, are kept busy plowing. Every available acre will probably be cropped next year.

Left Wing of Defenders Including Force Stationed Near Paris Continues to Make Progress—Teutons Retiring in the Direction of the Marne River French Troops Re-Occupy Mandry and the Peak of Fournoux—No Change in Situation in the Province of Alsace—Kaiser's Men Are Steadily Losing Ground.

An official communication issued at Paris this afternoon says that the left wing of the allied armies, comprising portions of the force defending Paris, continues to make progress. The advance reaches from the banks of the river Ourcq into the region of Montmirail. The Germans are retreating in the direction of the Marne river, between Meaux and Sezanne.

Paris, Sept. 8.—(2:32 p.m.)—French and English troops engaged in the battle now progressing to the east of the capital have taken numerous prisoners, including a battalion of German infantry and a company serving rapid fire guns. They captured also many gun carriages.

Paris, Sept. 8.—(3:25 p.m.)—The movement of retirement of the Germans near Vitry-Francois is confirmed. On the French right a German division attacked the Axis of Chateau Solina and Nancy but were repulsed to the northward passing Fere Champenoise. Farther to the east the French troops re-occupied Mandry and the peak of Fournoux. There is no change in the situation in the province of Alsace.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Violent encounters have occurred on the French center between Fere Champenoise and Vitry le Francois at the southern point of the forest of Argonne. The French have not fallen back anywhere. The Germans have lost ground.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The French embassy today received from Bordeaux under last night's date the following:

"The German right wing on the Ourcq and Grand Morin has been attacked with advantage to our troops. On the line Meaux-Vitry le-Francois the battle today became general."

BULLETIN—London, Sept. 8.—(3 p.m.)—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Nish, Serbia, says the Serbian army has begun the invasion of Bosnia and has crossed the river Save, near Milovitch.

BULLETIN—Paris, Sept. 8.—(3:05 p.m.)—According to reliable advices which have reached here Russian cavalrymen are now upon the crests of the Carpathian mountains.

Paris, Sept. 8.—(8:15 p.m.)—It is reported unofficially in Paris this afternoon that the Germans to the east of the city have asked for an armistice to bury their dead and care for their wounded.

It is understood that this request has been refused by the allies.

Paris, Sept. 8.—(5:10 p.m.)—The leading military authorities of the city are convinced that General Joffre, commander in chief of the French forces, is at last holding at bay the vast German army of invasion.

The worn out troops of Emperor William, who may constitute an army totalling 750,000 men are today encountering the relatively fresh soldiers of the French and British armies upon ground selected by the allies, and in positions within easy reach of supplies and reinforcements.

GERMAN AEROPLANES AT
RUSSIAN FRONTIER SHOW
MEN WILL SOON ARRIVE

London, Sept. 8 (10:27 a.m.)—A special despatch to the Star from Petrograd announces that many German aeroplanes are appearing on the Russian frontier heralding the arrival of reinforcements.

The Germans seem to possess a powerful force in the Posen district, the Star correspondent says, as they move their troops from Posen to East Prussia, or Galicia, as occasion requires.

WASHINGTON GIVES OUT
OFFICIAL CROP REPORT

Washington, Sept. 8.—Prospects for the spring wheat harvest are 15,000,000 bushels and for the corn crop 58,000,000 bushels owing to unfavorable weather during August. Indications now are for a spring wheat crop of 221,000,000 bushels and a corn crop of 2,585,000,000 bushels according to the department of agriculture forecast issued today. Prospects of oats decreased 37,000,000 bushels, but tobacco prospects increased 715,000,000 pounds, potatoes 1,000,000 bushels and sweet potatoes 2,000,000 bushels.

SAYS GERMANS MAY BE OUTFLANKED BY THE RUSSIAN ARMY

Credence Given to Report that 250,000 Muscovites Now in France.

London, Sept. 8.—(4 p.m.)—A Russian army said to number 250,000 men, according to the Rome Tribune, in France. The Tribune is considered reliable regarding Russian movements. Official confirmation of the report is refused at the press bureau.

Experts here are of the opinion that the Germans who heretofore have been the outflankers are in danger of being outflanked and of being compelled to accept a front attack from the allies, who now are on the offensive. This is a situation in which the combatants are stalemated in millions, is likely to end and flow for a week before a decisive result is reached.

Great strategical importance attaches to the Russian capture of the fortress of Nicolaieff in Austrian Galicia. It is situated at a junction of the railroad and has strong bow-shaped fortifications and entrenchments on banks of the river Dniester to protect the railroad bridges. The population of this place is largely Polish. It includes 4,000 Jews and a garrison of approximately 5,000.

BIG AUDIENCE EXPECTED FOR "ARE YOU A MASON?"

Leo Ditchelstein's funny comedy, "Are You a Mason?" will be the next offering of "The Players" at the Empire theater, and there is likely to be a large attendance of members of the Free and Accepted Order of Masons present on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights as well as on the Saturday matinee. Director Theodore Johnston has given the play his personal supervision and has also provided entirely new scenic equipment.

Two central characters of the play, Amos Bloodgood of Rockford, Illinois, and his son-in-law, Frank Perry of New York, have been having somewhat of a gay time, and, to appease their respective wives, both state that they are members of the masonic fraternity. Frank has always believed his wife's father to be a grand master. It is during his wife's absence that he finds the lights of Broadway more attractive than their quietness. His ride on the great white way and his return home at all hours of the morning are a visit to his wife's room. An Irish cook. He was "at the lodge" of course. When his wife's family comes on a visit, the two friends are perishing near discovery on a dozen different occasions. Halton, a friend, is seriously to get him initiated and they put him in a series of the most grotesque tests, also telling him wild stories of the terrors attendant upon the fiding of the masonic oath. He refuses to be scared off. Ernest Morrison, a young architect and a master mason, comes to Amos to ask for his daughter. Amos, realizing that Ernest is in position to expose him, informs his wife and daughter that Ernest is divorced, given to wine and cards and not fit to be the husband of Lulu. Morrison discovers this and in a humorous scene, after winning the old man's consent to his marriage, proposes him to Lulu. Ernest, who is a free mason, informs him that free masonry has for its objects the enlightenment of humanity, as well as the promotion of practical brotherhood all over the world, and this ancient and honorable fraternity must not be fooled with.

LYCEUM PLAYERS IN "THE TRUTH" THIS WEEK.

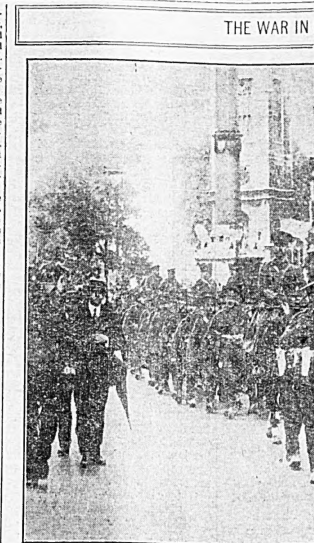

"The Truth," the well-known comedy by Clyde Fitch, is the offering at the Lyceum this week, and it is the Lyceum Stock company well maintains its standard of excellence. The cast is well balanced and the scenes are moments, interspersed with the humor of the play, are well handled.

The heroine, Mrs. Ward, is a butterfly creature with one besetting sin, that of prevarication. Added to that she is somewhat indolent, in interfering in the domestic affairs of some of her neighbors, which arouses the not unwarranted suspicions of her husband, who is absolutely straitlaced and wary. Mrs. Ward tries to be her way out of the trouble, which only makes matters worse, and finally her husband announces that they must separate. Mrs. Ward goes to visit her father, an elderly old man, who is living with a Mrs. Crispigay, and he, by strategy, in which Mrs. Ward refuses to have any part, brings the husband back and a reconciliation is effected.

Miss Grace Johnston is well suited to the part of the irresponsible Mrs. Ward and plays her part well. Edmond, as the husband, is a fine actor. Ward, is very convincing, and Donald Gray satisfactorily fills the part of the father. The play is a fine example of loose standards of morals, believing all women are sincere.

Salient Features of Today's War News

One of the most important battles of the European war continues today east of Paris, along the front of the allied armies extending from Nanteuil-le-Haudouin to Verdun. The Germans in their turning movement have swept through the entire Compiegne country and five German columns are now hurling their strength against the front of the allied forces, which extend a distance of 140 miles. The meagre news filtering in from the zone of the fighting today indicates that the allies have gained a decided success against the German night which is reported to have suffered heavily along the river Marne.

A report which was passed by the French and British Censors says that 25,000 Russian troops have been landed in France, presumably with the object of flanking the Germans in Belgium territory.

In the eastern theater of the war the Russians, following their brilliant success at Lemberg, capital of Galicia, are throwing their forces against the first Austrian army which has been desperately trying to break through the Russian line between Lublin and Khom. Details of the fighting around Lemberg contain the statement that the Russians took 82,000 Austrian prisoners.

On the other hand, advice received from Berlin by the German embassy at Washington says that the Austrian eastern army repulsed a violent attack.

Reports from the Balkans say that the Turks are concentrating 80,000 men along the Tchaikale line outside Constantinople, with a view to opening a possible Russian landing on the Black sea coast.

Serious controversy has occurred between Emperor William and Chancellor von Bethmann Holweg, the minister of foreign affairs, Ven Jagow, according to newspaper despatches from Berlin over the shodding of responsibility for the isolated diplomatic position in which Germany found herself at the outbreak of the European war.

The people of the United States were today asked in a proclamation signed by President Wilson to pray for peace in Europe.

RUSSIANS IN DOMINION ARE URGED ENLIST IN CANADIAN REGIMENTS

People of Russian extraction all over western Canada, who are engaged in the farming classes, are apparently of one heart and mind regarding the European war. They are holding meetings through the country and passing resolutions, in almost every case unanimously, urging the Russians in this country to join Canadian regiments and fight the fight of honor, whichever side is on. It is stated that a meeting was held at which the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas we are Russian farmers—emigrants from Bukovina, Galicia and Russia—living in Canada, on territory of Great Britain, which is now at war with Germany, and it is our duty to defend the interests, rights and honor of Great Britain, and therefore we, the undersigned, do hereby pledge ourselves to join the Canadian regiments."

"Whereas the war needs, besides young men, also money and provisions, therefore we call on our farmers and workmen to contribute in money and provisions to the Red Cross society, and to the Canadian patriotic fund."

"Whereas the Ruthenian Roman Catholic Bishop Budka, and with him the Ruthenian newspapers act as hyphocrites in view of the present war, and in view of our national and religious feelings, we pledge ourselves to sever all relations with him and with his newspapers, and we are, for centuries, Russian orthodox people. There are no two Russian Churches in Canada, and we are, for centuries, Russian orthodox people. There are no two Russian Churches in Canada, and we are, for centuries, Russian orthodox people. There are no two Russian Churches in Canada, and we are, for centuries, Russian orthodox people."

LOUVAIN BURGHERS ARE ASKED TO RESUME THEIR ORDINARY WALKS LIFE

Notterdam, Sept. 8. (via London).—In view of the fact that the German government has established civil government in part of Belgium occupied by their troops, the burgomaster of Louvain and a committee of citizens have called on the burgomaster of that city to return there and resume their ordinary walks of life. The call was in the form of a poster which was exhibited in the streets of Louvain today.

"After considering the matter with the German military authorities, we ask the inhabitants of Louvain to return to the city to resume their occupations."

"The orders previously issued remain in force. The people are prohibited from being on the streets after 7 o'clock in the evening, Belgian time."

"All those having arms and ammunition shall turn them over at the city hall. All hostile demonstrations toward the German troops must be avoided. The German authorities have promised that with these orders obeyed there will be no more burning of houses and that the population will no longer be harassed."

"We are greatly concerned with the restoration of commerce. Life, police service, a city administration and a water supply will be provided. Volunteer police will be recruited. Men to carry a large on their arms and also an identification paper. Those who are willing to serve are requested to report at the city hall."

SECOND GAME OF INTER-CITY SERIES IS WON BY CALGARY

Owing to Rain Championship is Not Yet Decided—Both Teams Made Rally in Ninth—Final Contest Will Be Played Tuesday.

Calgary, Sept. 8.—The amateur baseball championship of Alberta is still undecided for rain interfered with the deciding game of the series between the Edmonton City club and the Calgary Athletics. The final game will be played on Tuesday if the weather permits. The morning game was won by the Calgary team after an exciting ninth inning rally in which both teams participated. Calgary was leading 2 to 1 at the end of the eighth inning. In the first of the ninth inning Dyer made a decision at second base which was far from popular when he declared Murphy safe. Murphy followed with a home run over the center field fence, scoring Murphy ahead of him and putting the E. C. D. team in the lead. The crowd of 400 people were smothered under the decision of Ensign Dyer but were pulling for the rally which followed. Johnson struck out as a starter, but Mance came across with a single which was followed by Lundberg's two-bagger. French went to first on Worth's error. Mance scoring on the play and timing up the score. Lundberg taking third base then came across with a pinch single which won the game.

HAVE you noticed that about Ben Beys—that they're bigger, as well as better, than most cigars that sell for fifteen cents? This generous size—at ten cents (3 for 25c.)—means more than it measures. It means tobacco so well-cured, so smoothly blended, and so well-rolled, that a long smoke of it is all good.

Some cigars are good enough for the first couple of inches. Then you begin to get that "dark brown" taste.

Not so Ben Beys. Full of flavour—satisfying aroma—but no rankness, burn or bite. That means they won't hurt your nerves.
